Sports Nite

WITH "Anniversary Celebration" as a theme, this year's Sports Nite program climaxed ten successive seasons of "stiff" competition by finishing in a 17-17 score. As a result of this tie, the Black team retained its lead of one year. Captains of the teams were Gloria Hill, Black team, and Anne Adams, Red team. Jane Fabian was chosen as Mistress of Ceremonies, while Miss America was portrayed by Marjorie Smith.

In accordance with its theme, the show this year presented a review of performances of previous years. The Black team's program of review included marching—

Birthday Bakers, tap—Raggedy Ann and Andy-1941, rhythmic—Rhythm of the Nineties-1935, and victory exercises—Wheel of Memories, while the Reds presented marching—Anniversary March, tap—Round Up Rhythm-1938, rhythmic—Hiawatha-1941, and victory exercises—Anniversary Memories.

Races proved to be more popular this year, not only to the spectators but to the participants as well. Elaborate non-competitive numbers consisted of prelude—Memories, ballet—Birthday Party, and Skating—Roller Rhythm Revue.
