Trenton City Museum Looks for High School Artifacts

Trenton, N.J. July 13, 2010 – The Trenton Museum Society, in cooperation with Trenton Central High School, is preparing an exhibition for October 2010 about the history of the Trenton high schools and is looking for artifacts and memorabilia for the exhibit. The exhibit will showcase student life (going back to the late 1800s), the three high school buildings -- the first opening in 1874 -- and some of its famous alumni.

The Trenton Museum Society and Trenton High School invite graduates of Trenton High and descendants of graduates to loan their high school memorabilia to this unique exhibit.

If you are interested in having your family items considered for the exhibit, please bring them to the Trenton City Museum in Cadwalader Park, Trenton, on Saturday, August 21, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., or on Sunday, September 12, from 12:00 - 3:00 p.m.

If you have questions, please call 609-989-1191 or e-mail tms@ellarslie.org.
