2010 Trenton Young Artist Exhibition
An Exhibit at the Trenton City Museum of Trenton Public and Charter School Student Art

Mayor Douglas H. Palmer announced today that the Trenton City Museum at Ellarslie Mansion in Cadwalader Park, The Trenton Museum Society, the Trenton Board of Education, and the Charter Schools of Trenton are proud to present the 2010 Trenton Young Artist Exhibition. The exhibit will be on view from January 9, 2010 through February 21, 2010.

One of the City's proudest moments is showcasing the talent of its young people. From kindergarten to high school, the students' artistic prowess and expression are nurtured by talented and accomplished artists/educators in our local public schools. This year we are happy to announce that we will be including all of our charter schools as well. All entries are displayed to celebrate student talent and to afford the public an opportunity to view the students' accomplishments in a gallery setting.

Featured events include

Opening Reception, Saturday, January 16, from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. Admission is free and the public is welcome.

Art workshops for children in grades K - 4 on the following Saturdays from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

January 30: Picasso Puppets with Debbie Pey

February 6: Collograph Poem Prints with April Zay
